HUNGER THE CAUSE OF A SEVERE STROKE

Too proud to beg and without food for several days, John O'Conner a young man of about 23 years of age, seized with a paralytic stroke at the corner of Sixth street and Macdonald avenue early last evening. He was rushed to the Craven hospital by officers Wylie and Lange, where he was attended by Dr. Frazier. The man was unconscious for over an hour and it was not until late last evening that he recovered the use of his voice.

O'Conner may lose the use of his left arm, At a late hour last, Craven hospital reporting that he had at that time not succeeded in moving it. Dr. Frazier is hopeful, however that the arm can be cured.

VIOLIN SOLO FEATURE OF EXCELLENT PROGRAM

While the crowd which attended last night's charity band concert by the Richmond Concert Band was not up to expectations in numbers it more than made up for this lack by its applause and appreciation of the excellent work of the band boys. Arthur Heft proved to the satisfaction of all that he is a wonderful leader. The concert was without a doubt the best ever given by the band and many missed an opportunity to hear a truly excellent and well rendered program. One of the features of the program was a violin solo by Heft. He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Dearborn.

Miss Lucille Kister, a talanted local girl won the plaults of the audience with several well rendered vocal solos. The proceeds will be used for local work.

The following program was rendered:

Dr. Arthur Heft—Violin Solo accompanied by Miss Dearborn.

Miss Lucile Kister—Vocal Solo, accompanied by Miss Hazel Duncan.

1—March—Coronation, from the Prophet, Meyerbeer.

2—Grand Selection, from the Huguenots, Meyerbeer.

3—Waltz—Wedding of the Winds, Hall.

4—Atlantis, The Lost Continent. Safranck.

SUIT IN FOUR PARTS

No. I—Nocturne and Morning Hymn of Praise.

No. II—A Court Function.

No. III—I love Thee, The Prince and Aana.

No. IV—The Destruction of Atlantis.

5—Soprano Solo The Star That Lights My Garden, Miss Lucile Kister, Miss Hazel Duncan Accompanist.

6—Violin Solo—Grand Fantasia de Concert, My Old Kentucky Home, Mr. Arthur Heft, Miss Irma Dearborn Accompanist.

7—Overture. Crown Diamonds, Auber.

8—Sixtette From Lucia, Donizzette.

9—Songs of Scotland, Lampe.

Grand Selection of Scottish Folk Songs and Dances.

K. of P. INSTALLATION

Knights of Pythias enjoyed a banquet and class installation at Bank Hall last night.

FORMER SANTA FE MAN IS ON HONEYMOON HERE

John Wilson, formerly an engineer in the employ of the Santa Fe company in this city, is visiting his mother, Mrs. M. Wilson, who conducts the Eagle Rooming House on the west side. Wilson came from Seattle where he is employed as an engineer. With him came his bride o fa week. The couple are spending their honeymoon about the bay cities. Wilson is well known and popular here and yesterday spent part of the day in looking up some of the boys. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will leave for their home in the north in a few days.

LUCE PRESENTED GOLD WATCH BY LOCAL FANS

With more than one hundred loyal fans present William Luce and members of the Richmond Elk baseball team, champions of 1915, were guests of the Richmond Lodge of Elks at their headquarters last night. It was a celebration long to be remembered by everyone present. It was the true Richmond spirit. Joe Thomas, the manager of the Sebastopol club, and one of the best sportsmen in the country was present at the gathering and when he said "I congratulate the fans of Richmond in having such a gentemanly team of baseball players and a manager of Bill Luce's calibre" he summed up the situation. The city of Richmond is fortunate indeed and the city of Richmond fully realizes the fact and in showing that it appreciates the wonderful work of Bill Luce and the baseball club.

Herman Tuller, Richmond's Most Handsome fan and an ardent supporter of the club acted as toast master. The speakers were Gus Lang, Attorney Lee D. Windrem, Joe Thomas and William Luce.

After a few introductory words in which he lauded Luce and the members of the club, Tuller introduced Lang. It was then that Luce probably received the greatest surprise of his young life. A beautiful gold watch and chain, bearing the words "Presented to W. E. Luce by the Richmand Baseball Fans November 5, 1915", was presented to Luce by Lang.

"Mr. Luce and the baseball team has done more to boost the city of Richmond than any other means of advertising ever employed," said Mr. Lang "The club deserves the united suport of the people of Richmond. It has done remarkably, or rather wonderfully well for the season just closing. Mr. Luce and the team are to be congratulated. In response Luce said "I hardly know that to say. I certainly apreciate the support of the fans of Richmond. Of course, I desire to thank the fans for this princely gift, but my stock of words is limited and even if it were not I doubt whether I could really express the deep gratitude I feel for this example of true friendship. I desire to assure you that Richmond will have a good baseball club in the field in 1916. It will be the same one we have now, and I doubt whether there is a better club in semi-pro baseball. The members of the club have treated me in a royal fashion; the fans have been loyal. What more could I ask or expect."

Luce was interrupted frequently during his short talk by bursts of aplause. This was Bill's first attempt as an orator and let it be said, he performed in "big league" style.

From Sebastopol came Joe Thomas, the manager of that club. In all our experience never have we met a better sportsman or gentleman. Tuller introduced Thomas and the Manager of the great club at Sebastopol said "I wish to congratulate Mr. Luce and the members of the club. They are what I consider real sportsmen. Richmond is certainly fortunate in having such a great manager and baseball team."

Thomas also lauded the work of Jeff Woods, the official umpire of the Richmond club. "You can always figure on a square deal when you play Richmond" Thomas said in conclusion.

Monte Phyle of the Sebastopol club was present at the gathering but did not speak.

Following the banquet those present gathered in the club rooms where a musical program and entertainment was enjoyed.

It was certainly a big evening. Bill Luce and the ball club deserved every bit of the praise which they received and now the pople of Richmond can look forward to landing the 1916 championship.

RECEIVES WORD OF NIECES DEATH IN SAN FRANCISCO

Mrs. Martha Nagel, postmistress and telegraph operator at the Pacific Fruit Express and telegraph company received word yesterday that her niece, Miss Owen Daniels of Swayne, Cal., had died at a San Francisco hospital. The child had been ill for two months. Miss Nagel is just recovering from an attack of ptomain poisoning received last Monday.

BODY OF WELL KNOWN CHARACTER IN CABIN

So decomposed as to be hardly recognizable the body of Thomas J. Gorevan, known as "Santa Fe Tommy" was found yesterday morning in a cabin near the municipal tunnel by B. Bertardi. The man evidently died several weeks ago. Death was adue to illness. A year ago, Gorevan, became ill and was in the hospital for many months. Around thne he was reputed to be wealthy. He is said to have wealthy relatives in the east.

Gorevan or Santa Fe Tommy as he was familiarly known up until two months ago conducted a shoe shining stand at the corned of Seventh street and Macdonald avenue. He had lived in that scity since 1900 and was a well known character.

The remains have been removed to the Smallwood undertaking parlors. An inquest will be held next week.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE IN WEST SIDE ACCIDENT

J. Patterson, driver for the Richmond Bakery, 1 Park Place narrowly escaped serious injury late last evening when the horse he was driving stumbled and fell. The animal was killed almost instantly. Patterson was severely shaken up but was not injured. The accident occured on Idaho street.

Several days ago, the horse killed last night, run over an embankment on the west side. The driver sustained a broken leg and other injuries and the wagon was wrecked in last night's accident, the wagon and driver were unharmed.

"BIG NIGHT" WINDS UP IN JAIL

A night of revelry, spent in visiting various cafes in various sections of the bay cities was culminated last night in this city, when R. C. Fenton said to be a former member of the San Francisco police force had two women of the San Francisco Red Light district arrested. He claimed that they had robbed him of his money.

The arrest took place in a local restaurant. Fenton with his two women companions entered the place. A altercation ensued, and Fenton in vulgar language accused the women of robbing him. He summoned a member of the police department and two women were arrested.

ODD FELLOWS WILL GO TO DANVILLE TOMAY.

Odd Fellows will gather at Danville tonight at the district meeting to put on the degree work for a number of candidates. A special train will leave the Southern Pacific depot at 7 o'clock this evening to rthe scene of the festivities. It is expected that about 100 will make the trip.

Attempt is Made On Man's Life

In revenge for information handed the police, a man supposed to be a member of an alleged gang of three pickpockets, late yesterday afternoon made an unsuccessful attempt to murder J. H. Tonkin, a street car conductor, residing at 111 Bissell avenue. The assault occured on Macdonald avenue between First and second street. After stabbing Tonkin in the back with a huge knife, the assalant got into a seven passenger automobile which was waiting nearby. The machine which carried a driver and a second man then drove away.

Tonkin staggered to his home. The police were not notified until a half hour after the stabbing and it is not likely that the criminal will be apprehended.

Several days ag , thre men entered the car of which Tonkin was conductor. At Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue, they became engaged in an alercation with an aged man, whom it is said they attempted to "frisk" of his money. The three left the car. Day before yesterday, Tonkin while riding a bicycle noticed three men whom he believed were the same three on the street car. He trailed them for a few blocks and then notified Plain clothesman Fred Fleckman. The latter after trailing the two men for an hour arrested them on a street car at the subway.

They were held until yesterday morning when they were released.

Whether Tonkin was attacked by the third member of the trio is a puzzle the police are trying to fathom and they are now trying to locate the two men arrested, believing that they might shed some light on the matter.

Tonkin was too weak to make any statement on the matter last night. Mrs. Tonkin in an interview said: "My husband had left for the car barn to take an extra run. He had left the house but a few minutes when he returned home. He had a deep gash in his side, and the blood was pouring out freely. I summoned a physician and was assured that the wound was not serious. My husband told me that he believed that it was one of the three men whom he had prevented from robbing an elderly man on his car."

Famous men I have met.
Anetodes and history of Famous men of Richmond.
HOWARD FRENCH, Famous benedict.

Born in Inky Dink, Russia, Howard at the age of five decided that life was too slow and with the cooperation of several enthusiastic souls, incited a revolution to overthrow, Cleans Emupski, the village garbage man. The secret service operatives learned of the operations of the band, and French with his associates was dispatched to Siberia. By disguising himself as a hunk of pork sausage, Howard escaped. He reached the Atlantic ocean after many perilous adventures and immediately swam over to New York.

When he left the ocean at New York, he learned to his surprise and dismay that he had wasted away to 234 pounds. Grabbing a jitney bus he chartered the machine and came to Richmond. In this city, the fragrance of the oil refinery and the porterhouse steaks from Slattery Bros., soon had Howard in normal condition.

Howard then assumed command of the rooting forces of the Richmond Elks. From an assistant in the hash house at the Standard Oil company, Howard, with great perseverance and pluck worked his way to assistant janitor under the then Chief janitor Herman Tuller. Later he was placed in charge of some kind of a department.

And then he ventured forth upon the sea of matrimony. Further additions to Mr. Howard's life may be published later.

WALTER IMHACH, World's greatest draughtsman.

Walter's childhood was devoted to eating sleeping and attending school. Before embarking upon a career as draughtsman, Mr. Imbach, took a nautical turn of mind. He went to sea. Walter chanced to be in Portland one summers day, as free of cash as we are of common sence. He strolled along the wharves. He met a friend who was a stewart or deck scrubber or some durn thing and the friend told him the ship needed a mess boy. And Walter applied and received the job. When asked if he had ever been to sea before, Walter answered sure. He admitted that he had slung chow for the seamen on the good ship Grace Barton. So he was promptly hired. All went well while the vessel remained in port. But ships are built to ply the sea and this particular ship started on its trip for San Francisco. As the vessel crossed the bar (a sand one of course) Walter experienced a queer sensation within the confines of his vest. As he entered the kitchen the fragrant oder of boiling corn beef and cabbage was wafted to him. Walter did not appear to rush the mess for the hungry seamen, locking himself in a berth and despite entreaties, threats and maledictions, remained until the last seaman had departed for his duties.

When Walter once more appeared in the kitchen to rush the chow for the evening mess, the cook, the dish washer, stewart and everyone within hailing distance gave Walter a very pleasant time.

Walter further discovered that the sea is very wet, especially in a storm. And after many conferences with himself decided to leave the life on the rolling deep.

He is not married ——yet.

"Paris does not want to return to peace" reads a head line in an evening newspaper. We haven't seen anyone who is especially anxious to land quarters in San Quentin.

OROVILLE FANS WILL COME ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Next Sunday the Richmond Elks will meet the Oroville club, champions of the Trolly League in a contest which will give the fans an idea of how baseball is played in the up country towns. The Oroville contingent has strengthened its club with the pick of the entire league and will bring down the strongest aggregation of tossers ever chasing out of the Sacramento valley. Leaving Sacramento tonight, the Oroville club accompanied by a band of rooters will come to Richmond. A special excursion train has been chartered for the trip and it is expected that a good sized crowd will make the trip. Following the game the visitors will go to San Francisco to visit the Exposition leaving for Sacramento late tomorrow night.

Mickey Shrader, the peer of twirlers up Sacramento way will officiate on the mound for the visitors. Shrader has established a remarkable record for the season just ended and the fact that he without a doubt the best in the Trolly League ranks should draw a record attendance of local fans.

The writer has always contended that the Elks are the greatest aggregation of baseball tossers playing semi-pro baseball. Some local fans may take exception to this statement and declare that the Elks are the best there is including the Coast League. Be that as it may, last Sunday's performance has stamped the Elks as the classiest bunch of tossers around the bay. While it is possible that the San Francisco Coasters could defeat the locals, there are those who have considerable change to say that the Seals could not do the trick.

George, the handsome sporting editor of the Martinez Daily Standard is getting very loose with his remarks. In a very interesting but perfectly absurd and asinine article in his great newspaper, George declares that the Elks are not entitled to the championship. George points out that the Elks were defeated on two occasions by Martinez. And therefore says George "Yuhain't no champions a tall." You're wrong again, old boy. Of course if Martinez ever did beat Richmond, we would all go out in the rear yard and dig a deep hole, in which we would establish ourselves pulling the hole in after us.

If George will only look up the statistics he will probably find to his great surprise and amazement that the CLUB WHICH DEFEATED RICHMOND WAS NOT THE MARTINEZ CLUB AT ALL. It was a CLUB COMPOSED OF MEMBERS OF THE COAST LEAGUE CLUBS AND THEREFORE THOSE VICTORIES CANNOT BE CALLED MARTINEZ WINS.

We of Richmond have heard some fairly interesting fairy tales perpetrated in the county seat, including the famous "dope" story, but when our little friend at the county seat rises up to make the assertion that Martinez has a club equal to the class of the Elks, we just naturally begin to look askance to the county health authorities.

And then again, if George will take the baseball dope book in hand and carefully peruse its columns he will probably find some further interesting material. For instance he will find, that the club grabbing the world's championship may have on more than one occasion have been defeated by the cellerites. San Francisco in fact dropped as many games to Oakland, the champion cellerites in the Coast League as she won.

And when we look back into the season which is just closing and find that Martinez dropped games to the Great Western Power Company and other minor clubs, we just naturally have to let it out; "Ha, Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, haw, haw, hoho, Martinez champions." Sure they're the champions ——of the celler.

We just naturally quiver with apprehension when we even think what a gang of coastleaguers would do to Joe's band of would bes at the county seat.

CITY SEALS THE CUTTING BONDS

Bonds for the improvement of Richmond avenue and other streets amounting to over $55,000 and held against H. C. Cutting were sold yesterday to satisfy claims of the city against the Cutting Company. The bonds were purchased by W. O. Miles of Fresno, a financier of that city. It is stated that the case recently decided in the superior court at Martinez by which efforts of Cutting to avoid payment were fustrated will be appealed.

TO GIVE FREE TRIP TO YOUNGSTERS TO EXPO.

All youngsters of Richmond under twelve years of age who have not as yet visited the exposition will be carried from this city to the exposition and returned with charge on November 20th by the Key Route company. That Saturday has been set aside as "Key System Day" and it promises to be one of the largest of any event during the final days of the big show.

Superintendent Charles F. Donnelly of the northern division of the transportation company announced today that completed plans for the event will be made known early next week. The free fare to and from the grounds offered by the corporation should be a great boon to the kiddies of Richmond.

TWO PERMITS ISSUED BY THE BUILDING INSPECTOR

M. W. Magers secured a permit from theoffice of Building Inspector Bert Wierda yesterday to move a building from Thirtieth street to the City of Pullman tract. The work is being done by L. Johnson and will cost $60.

A. Shanahan took out a permit from theofice to erect a green house in the rear of his home, First street between Main and Florida streets, to cost $55.

PANAAGES THEATER

What lucky of the eastbay region is going to win the handsome Brownie Car which has been put on display in front of the Pantages theater in Oakland? This is a full fledged automobile with all accessiories and will make a fine Christmas present for some boy or girl. The Pantages theater management has opened a popularity contest which will close Christmas eve and any boy or girl in Alameda or Contra Costa counties is eligible to enter the contest. Fourteen have already entered the lists and many more are expected. Manager Cornell of the Pantages is in charge of the contest and inquiries should be of him or at the box office.

A ballot box to hold the votes has been placed in the theater and the key has been turned over to County Clerk George Gross as custodian and a committee of well known men and women has been apointed to count the votes. No attaches of the theater will have any connection with the contest.

Some of the more active contestants have already formed efficient organizations, appointing their friends as lieutenants and their campaigns will rival those of any political candidate and it is expected that some brand new campaign dodges will be envolved by the youthful aspirants.

AT THE RICHMOND

This afternoon and evening will be the last time that Richmond theatre goers will have to see Edna Mayo and Bryant Washburn in the most novel play of the day "The Blindness of Virtue" which Rev. Thomas Gregory has said "A Play that every mother and young woman should see." This filmed version of the highly successful spoken play has had as great if not greater success than the original legitimate drama.

It tells the story of a young girl, brought up to know no wrong, who falls in with some very peculiar situations. Staged handsomely and with a superb cast it is wonderful story of modern life.

A two reel Keystone comedy When Ambrose Dared Walrus and the playlet of thrills, "A Bride of the Sea" makes a very pleasing program of nine reels. Tomorrow comes another big vandeville Sunday.
